

Financial Advisor

Growing Eastside Cleveland, Ohio RIA looking for a Financial Advisor to service existing clients who has a minimum of 3 – 5 years of planning experience in investments, retirement, estate, education and tax. Own book of business is nice, but not required.

The firm focuses planning around a broad range of topics, including internal investment management while maintaining a high-quality concierge type of service.

We strive to serve our clients' best interests by working to understanding their real needs and concerns and then personalize approaches to address those needs. It is a fast-paced work environment, which offers an exceptional opportunity for individuals who complement our dedicated and collaborative working environment.

The ideal candidate will be able to demonstrate self-motivation, ambition, a strong work ethic, be able to think well on their feet and be able to provide examples of developing rapport with clients. The position necessitates tremendous organizational skills, excellent attention to detail and the ability to provide sound advice on topics a mile wide in an articulate manner.

If you are looking for an opportunity to advance your career and gain acceptance by clients as a trusted advisor, we encourage you to apply today.
